

Irnieracing.com presents: Gambling is Racing Part Two

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 30 January 2013 18:06 - Last Updated Friday, 01 February 2013 00:30

{youtube}TAI17mTYb4I{/youtube}

Irnieracing.com presents: Gambling is Racing Part Two aka "Fighter Style":

Marcel Irnie's adventure continues to Miller Motorsport Park Utah, following a big crash at Thunderhill Raceway, California on May 13th, 2012. Fans Edwin Chung and Chris Martinez help fix the BMW S1000rr in record time to make the WERA West National four days later. Irnie also films World Superbike and AMA Pro Roadracing the following weekend. "Part Three" will be available late February 2013. If you really enjoyed the video, please donate to my 2013 race video campaign with paypal/email bank transfer to marcel@irnieracing.com (Paypal Donate Button)

To view Part One,
click Here.

Chris Martinez: "It's funny. Marcel Irnie is the one of the few I know who can get away with 37min videos. It's not just the pretty girls and bikes, or his zany personality.. The guy is fearless, and hella fast, and manages to do what he loves somehow. Talent.. It's no secret, people love talent. Got to go work on mine ;-0."

Joey Soza : "Awesome video buddy!!! I really liked fighter style."

MFChop : "Great Vid! some one give this guy a pro contract!"

Fenrir7 : "Oh man, that was awesome Marcel. Did you travel from BC all teh way to California on four wheels? Oh how I wish I could do that someday...Must've been astonishing to see those World Superbike racers and manufacturers' racing team in person. The blonde beauty at the end is a plus, great smile. LOL! I admire your fearless knee-dragging and your skills on the track. More power to you bro!"